The application for revision of timings was rejected by the respondent and the same was confirmed by the STAT in Ext.P2 order. In Ext.P2, it has been rightly found by the Appellate Authority that there was no change in circumstances warranting revision of timings. Counsel for the petitioner submits that the respondent did not afford an opportunity of hearing to the petitioner before the request was rejected. Such complaint is not seen raised either before the STAT or even in the writ petition. In such circumstances I am not in a position to appreciate the same.

Writ petition lacks merit and it is dismissed.

ANTONY DOMINIC, JUDGE.
